

WHEREAS: Many award-winning City initiatives, such as the East Cambridge Riverfront Plan and redevelopment, have been directed by Roger Boothe and resulted in significant improvements to the quality of the city's environment; and

WHEREAS: Roger Boothe was the recipient of the City Manager's Employee of the Year Award in 2003; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the City Council go on record in strongly supporting the Boston Society of Architects' nomination; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the City Council urges the National AIA to bestow on Roger Boothe this much-deserved honor of the Thomas Jefferson Award; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the City Clerk be and hereby is requested to forward suitably engrossed copies of this resolution to Roger Boothe and to the AIA on behalf of the entire City Council.

In City Council September 22, 2008.

Adopted by the affirmative vote of eight members.

Attest:- D. Margaret Drury, City Clerk.

A true copy;

ATTEST:-

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "D. Margaret Drury", written in a cursive style.

D. Margaret Drury
City Clerk

City of Cambridge

R-5.

IN CITY COUNCIL

September 22, 2008

COUNCILLOR MAHER
COUNCILLOR DAVIS
COUNCILLOR DECKER
COUNCILLOR KELLEY
VICE MAYOR MURPHY
COUNCILLOR REEVES
COUNCILLOR SEIDEL
MAYOR SIMMONS
COUNCILLOR TOOMEY

WHEREAS: The City Council greatly appreciates that the Boston Society of Architects has nominated Roger Boothe to receive the 2009 Thomas Jefferson Award for Public Architecture given by the American Institute of Architects (AIA); and

WHEREAS: The City looks forward to Roger Boothe's continuing role as Director of Urban Design, a position he has held with distinction for 30 years; and

WHEREAS: Roger Boothe has shown commitment and expertise in working with the Planning Board and City Council on a number of visionary rezonings, with the Planning Board on design issues affecting every part of the City, and with the City Manager's office and other City Departments to bring an urban design sensibility to all City projects; and

WHEREAS: Numerous design and policy documents that guide Cambridge's growth were developed by Roger Boothe, including the forward-looking documents A Plan for the Future of Cambridge (2001) and Toward a Sustainable Future (2007); and

WHEREAS: Roger Boothe headed the creation of the Harvard Square Development Guidelines and their application to over 50 projects, thus playing a crucial role in preserving the character of Harvard Square; and

WHEREAS: The Central Square area has benefited tremendously from Roger Boothe's urban design intervention, changing the character of Massachusetts Avenue from a highway to a lively and pedestrian-friendly main street, and a program (now city-wide) to enhance the physical environment by working with property owners on façade improvements; and

WHEREAS: Roger Boothe led in the creation of the seminal Cambridgeport Revitalization Plan of 1983, which resulted in the construction of a new 2.3 million square foot mixed use urban center that is an excellent example of how a former industrial area may be positively transformed; and

RESOLUTION #5

Congratulations to Roger Boothe
on the occasion of his nomination to receive the 2009 Thomas Jefferson Award for Public
Architecture given by the American Institute of Architects.

Councillor Maher and entire membership

In City Council
September 22, 2008

ORDER ADOPTED