

City of Cambridge

1.

IN CITY COUNCIL

June 12, 1995

MAYOR REEVES
COUNCILLOR BORN
COUNCILLOR DUEHAY
COUNCILLOR GALLUCCIO
COUNCILLOR MYERS
VICE MAYOR RUSSELL
COUNCILLOR SULLIVAN
COUNCILLOR TOOMEY
COUNCILLOR TRIANTAFILLOU

WHEREAS: The contribution Harvard University has made to the growth and education of the City of Cambridge over the years has been significant; and

WHEREAS: Harvard University provides a service to the public and contributes significantly to the level and quality of political discourse in the City of Cambridge through the Forum at the Institute of Politics; and

WHEREAS: The Institute of Politics also contributes to the level and quality of the political debate in the City of Cambridge by bringing to Harvard, men and women who have distinguished themselves in the public sector; and

WHEREAS: Philip R. Sharp, as a twenty year member of the United States House of Representatives, distinguished himself among his peers by providing leadership on issues pertaining to national energy conservation and the protection of environmental resources, as evident in the key role he played in the formulation and passage of the 1990 Clean Air Act, the Comprehensive Energy Policy Act of 1992, and other important legislation; and

WHEREAS: Philip R. Sharp will assume the duties of Director of the Institute of Politics as of July 1, 1995; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this City Council does hereby sincerely congratulate Philip R. Sharp upon his ascension to the post of director; and be it further

RESOLVED: That this City Council does hereby formally welcome Philip R. Sharp to the City of Cambridge.

In City Council June 12, 1995

Adopted by the affirmative vote of nine members.

Attest:- D. Margaret Drury, City Clerk.

A true copy;

ATTEST:- D. Margaret Drury

D. Margaret Drury
City Clerk

City of Cambridge

1.

IN CITY COUNCIL

June 12, 1995

MAYOR REEVES

WHEREAS: The contribution Harvard University has made to the growth and education of the City of Cambridge over the years has been significant; and

WHEREAS: Harvard University provides a service to the public and contributes significantly to the level and quality of political discourse in the City of Cambridge through the Forum at the Institute of Politics; and

WHEREAS: The Institute of Politics also contributes to the level and quality of the political debate in the City of Cambridge by bringing to Harvard, men and women who have distinguished themselves in the public sector; and

WHEREAS: Philip R. Sharp, as a twenty year member of the United States House of Representatives, distinguished himself among his peers by providing leadership on issues pertaining to national energy conservation and the protection of environmental resources, as evident in the key role he played in the formulation and passage of the 1990 Clean Air Act, the Comprehensive Energy Policy Act of 1992, and other important legislation; and

WHEREAS: Philip R. Sharp will assume the duties of Director of the Institute of Politics as of July 1, 1995; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this City Council does hereby sincerely congratulate Philip R. Sharp upon his ascension to the post of director; and be it further

RESOLVED: That this City Council does hereby formally welcome Philip R. Sharp to the City of Cambridge.

entire membership
Consent Order #1

RL 556

Mayor Reeves re: Welcome Philip Sharp to the City of Cambridge as the new Director of Politics at Harvard University.

In City Council June 12, 1995

Order adopted.