

Cambridge September 15 1924.

To the Honorable, the City Council of the City of Cambridge:

The undersigned respectfully pray

I hereby submit to the City of Cambridge a bid of EIGHT THOUSAND (8000) DOLLARS for the land and building known as the Gore Street School, located on Gore Street, East Cambridge.

If I acquire this property it is my intention to remodel it into a manufacturing plant.

I am now doing business under the name of the Middlesex Mfg. Co. at 207 Bridge Street, East Cambridge, and because of the widening of Bridge Street I will be obliged to get a new location, and would like to continue to do business in Cambridge.

Respectfully submitted,

Edward F. Bracy
