Dear Council Members ,

The Cambridge Girl Scout Service Unit and Patriots' Trail Girl Scout Council is proud to announce that Tara C. Henley of Cambridge has successfully completed the requirements necessary to achieve the Gold Award. This award, the equivalent of the Boy Scout Eagle Award, is the highest award achievable in Girl Scouting. It takes many months to complete all the requirements including career and interest exploration, leadership development and community service. The final component, the Gold Award project, must be approved and then evaluated by the Gold Award committee. A personal interview is also a part.

Tara lives and has grown up in an elderly housing complex. Her knowledge of Senior citizens gained from talking with, listening to and living among the elderly population led her to choose a Gold Award project which would benefit them. She worked with the Cambridge Council on Aging to help research, collect and prepare, organize and lay out a booklet listing services available to the elderly in Cambridge and the surrounding areas. The booklet is due to be printed for Spring availability. Tara worked for Amy Bernstein and Johannah Chao at the Council on Aging.

As representatives serving Cambridge which is also served by Patriots' Trail Girl Scout Council, I wanted to inform you of this outstanding young woman and the significant contribution she has made to her community.

Tara will be honored at a Service Unit Ceremony on Sunday, March 28, 1993. If you would like to write a congratulatory letter to her, I know it would be appreciated. If you could send the letter to my attention, I will see it is presented at the ceremony. If you wish to have someone present at the ceremony to present the letter please notify Sandra Publicover at (617)482-1078 or Maria Henley at (617)547-6885.

Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,

Sandra Publicover
