- WHEREAS: Our City is blessed, from time to time, to count among its citizens individuals of such strength of character, commitment, energy, and excellence, that those whose lives they touch cannot fail to be perceptibly changed and profoundly moved; and
- WHEREAS: TONY BOTTI, who for the past six years has served our City with incomparable ability and inexhaustible compassion as the Coordinator of Client Services for Cambridge Cares About AIDS, is one of those individuals; and
- WHEREAS: During his tenure at Cambridge Cares About AIDS, TONY BOTTI has consistently demonstrated his sincere dedication to developing essential programs and services for persons who are infected with and affected by HIV;
- WHEREAS: TONY BOTTI has worked tirelessly for the delivery of quality client services for persons living with HIV, and has been instrumental in the realization of increased housing programs for HIV infected men, women, and families in our City; and
- WHEREAS: Perhaps the greatest testament to his work is that whenever we know of someone who is in critical need of HIV services, we immediately tell them to "call TONY BOTTI at Cambridge Cares - he'll help you out;" and
- WHEREAS: Now that TONY BOTTI is leaving us, we feel a certain sadness, for while we wish him all the best in his future endeavors, we know that he can never be replaced; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this City Council does hereby sincerely thank TONY BOTTI for six years of outstanding service to the City of Cambridge and, more importantly, to countless numbers of persons living with HIV; and be it further

RESOLVED: That this City Council encourages TONY BOTTI to remember that wherever his next steps may lead, he may always think of the City of Cambridge as his welcoming home.
