AN ORDINANCE

In amendment to an ordinance formerly entitled "The General Ordinances of the City of Cambridge" as revised in 1972 and now designated as "The Code of the City of Cambridge".

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Cambridge as follows:

That Chapter Twenty-Three entitled "Regulations Pertaining to Controlled Rental Housing Units" is hereby amended as follows:

Chapter Twenty-Three. Regulations Pertaining to Controlled Rental Housing Units.

Section 1. Removal of Controlled Rental Units from Market.

(a) Declaration of emergency. The serious public emergency with respect to the housing of Cambridge citizens, as declared by Chapter 23, Section 1 of the City Code (the ordinance) and by Chapter 36 of the Acts of 1976, continues for the reasons stated in the ordinance. In addition, conversion of rental housing to cooperatives has recently begun to remove controlled rental units from the market, further worsening the emergency. In order to clarify its original legislative intention that such cooperative conversions constitute a "removal from the market" as defined in the ordinance, the City Council now finds it necessary to adopt a clarifying amendment to the ordinance. Accordingly, this amendment shall apply to all units which had not been removed from the rental market before the effective date of the original ordinance.

(b) Definitions. as used in this section:

(1) "Act" means Chapter 36 of the Acts of 1976, as amended from time to time.

(2) "Board" means the Rent Control Board established by section 5 of the Act.

(3) "Controlled rental unit" means any unit included in the definition under section 3(b) of the Act.

(4) "Removal from the market" is applied to a controlled rental unit, includes but is not limited to:

(i) occupy, as an owner of a unit which is a condominium unit, if the last previous occupant was a tenant; however, if the same person will occupy the controlled rental unit as a condominium unit owner, this ordinance will not apply.

(ii) demolish, but no unit has been removed from the market by demolition until its physical destruction has begun; or

(iii) rehabilitate, repair or improve, other than as required by the laws of the Commonwealth or the city, in such a way as to prevent residential occupancy during the course of the rehabilitation, repair or improvement.

But, this term "removal from the market" does not include occupancy of a non-condominium unit by the owner of the building in which it is located or by any member of his/her immediate family; or a condominium unit which the unit owner occupied before the tenant occupied it; or a condominium unit as to which unit it can be shown with respect to its initial sale after the recording of the master deed that a purchase and sale agreement has been entered into prior to August 10, 1979, a cancelled check being conclusive proof of the transaction, or a unit deed recorded in the Middlesex Registry of Deeds prior to August 10, 1979; or

(iv) convert to a cooperative, as the term is used in section 3(b) (4) of the Act, all or part of any building which contains any controlled rental unit.

(c) Removal regulated. No owner or other person shall remove from the market any controlled rental unit, unless the board after a hearing grants a permit. The board may issue orders and promulgate regulations to effectuate the purposes of this section, and to prescribe the procedure for applications, notice, hearings, and the granting and withdrawal of permits. A permit to remove from the market a unit in a building converted or proposed to be converted to a condominium may be granted to the owner of the building before the sale of the unit.

(d) Considerations. In deciding whether to grant a permit under this section, the board shall consider:

(1) the benefits to the persons sought to be protected by the Act and by this section;

(2) the hardships imposed on the tenants residing in the unit proposed to be removed, including any mitigating provisions made by the applicant; and

(3) any aggravation of the shortage of decent rental housing accommodations, especially for families of low and moderate income and elderly people on fixed incomes, which may result from the removal;

(e) Effectiveness. This section shall apply to all controlled rental units which had not been removed from the market before August 13, 1979. This section shall take effect immediately, but shall cease to be effective if the board files its certificate with the city clerk that:

(1) the vacancy rate in the total supply of controlled rental exceeds four percent, or

(2) the total number of rental units in the city excluding public housing units, exceeds that number as of January 1, 1970.

If such a certificate ceases to be correct, the board shall withdraw it by filing a new certificate, and this section shall then again be effective until one of the above conditions again prevails.

(f) Penalty. Any person who violates this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars. The removal of each unit shall constitute a separate violation.

(g) Equitable relief. The board or any person aggrieved by a failure to comply with this section may enforce its provisions in a civil action for injunctive or declaratory relief.

(h) Severability. The provisions of this section are severable. If a court declares invalid any such provisions, or its application to any person or circumstance, the invalidity shall not affect the validity of any other provision or application.

In City Council August 4, 1980.

Passed to be ordained by a ye and nay vote: Yeas 5; Nays 3; Absent 1.
