Reseed the lawn; prune and fertilize trees and shrubs; plant flowers, but, please, no bicycle park!

Sincerely,

May Price

P.S. Many of the 'improved' neighborhood parks have been transformed into children's only playgrounds, which is fine... but, please, hands off the Commos!

To the City Council:

Although I do not live near the Cambridge Common, I am distressed by newspaper reports of plans to put a 15' wide bicycle path through this historic site. Please, I urge you, do everything you can ^{to} stop this travesty.

I believe Rosalie Pindus has not a clue as to the historic and aesthetic importance of the Common to the City of Cambridge and its

A bike path could soon be built in the Cambridge TAB. (The Cambridge TAB is a park in Cambridge, Massachusetts.)
