

City of Cambridge

R-43.

IN CITY COUNCIL

May 15, 2000

MAYOR GALLUCCIO
COUNCILLOR BORN
COUNCILLOR BRAUDE
COUNCILLOR DAVIS
COUNCILLOR DECKER
VICE MAYOR MAHER
COUNCILLOR REEVES
COUNCILLOR SULLIVAN
COUNCILLOR TOOMEY

WHEREAS: This year marks the 225th anniversary of the start of the American Revolution in 1775; and

WHEREAS: The City of Cambridge played an important role during that pivotal year in the nation's drive for freedom from foreign tyranny and the right to self rule; and

WHEREAS: During this year, the Revolutionary Cambridge- The 225th Anniversary project will highlight Cambridge's essential role in the events of 1775 which led to the nation's independence in 1776; and

WHEREAS: Revolutionary Cambridge-The 225th Anniversary is a joint effort of the Cambridge Historical Society and the Longfellow National Historic Site which will be presented by the Historic Cambridge Collaborative, a joint effort of Cambridge organizations; and

WHEREAS: Former Mayor Francis H. Duehay will serve as Honorary Chair of the Revolutionary Cambridge-the 225th Anniversary project; and

WHEREAS: The major event commemorating Cambridge's role in the events of 1775 will be Revolutionary Cambridge Discovery Day, which will be held on July 1 and will include events throughout the City; now therefor be it

RESOLVED: That this City Council urge all Cambridge residents to be aware of and participate in the various events planned for Cambridge Discovery Day on July 1; and be it further

RESOLVED: That this City Council urge Cambridge residents to learn more about the important role our City played in this nation's drive for independence; and be it further

RESOLVED: That this City Council extend its thanks to the Cambridge Historical Society, the Longfellow National Historic Site, the members of the Historic Cambridge Collaborative, all other participants in the Revolutionary Cambridge – The 225th Anniversary project, and to former Mayor Francis H. Duehay for his role as honorary chair; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the City Clerk forward, on behalf of the entire City Council, a suitably engrossed copy of this resolution to the Revolutionary Cambridge-the 225th Anniversary project.

In City Council May 15, 2000.

Adopted by the affirmative vote of nine members.

Attest:- D. Margaret Drury, City Clerk.

A true copy;

ATTEST:-

A handwritten signature in cursive script, reading "D. Margaret Drury".

D. Margaret Drury
City Clerk

R43

MAYOR GALLUCCIO

- WHEREAS This year marks the 225th anniversary of the start of the American Revolution in 1775; and
- WHEREAS The City of Cambridge played an important role during that pivotal year in the nation's drive for freedom from foreign tyranny and the right to self rule; and
- WHEREAS During this year, the Revolutionary Cambridge- The 225th Anniversary project will highlight Cambridge's essential role in the events of 1775 which led to the nation's independence in 1776; and
- WHEREAS Revolutionary Cambridge-The 225th Anniversary is a joint effort of the Cambridge Historical Society and the Longfellow National Historic Site which will be presented by the Historic Cambridge Collaborative, a joint effort of Cambridge organizations; and
- WHEREAS Former Mayor Francis H. Duehay will serve as Honorary Chair of the Revolutionary Cambridge-the 225th Anniversary project; and
- WHEREAS The major event commemorating Cambridge's role in the events of 1775 will be Revolutionary Cambridge Discovery Day, which will be held on July 1 and will include events throughout the City; now therefor be it
- RESOLVED That this City Council urge all Cambridge residents to be aware of and participate in the various events planned for Cambridge Discovery Day on July 1; and be it further
- RESOLVED That this City Council urge Cambridge residents to learn more about the important role our City played in this nation's drive for independence; and be it further
- RESOLVED That this City Council extend its thanks to the Cambridge Historical Society, the Longfellow National Historic Site, the members of the Historic Cambridge Collaborative, all other participants in the Revolutionary Cambridge – The 25th Anniversary project, and to former Mayor Francis H. Duehay for his role as honorary chair; and be it further
- RESOLVED That the City Clerk forward, on behalf of the entire City Council, a suitably engrossed copy of this resolution to the Revolutionary Cambridge-the 25th Anniversary project.

City of Cambridge

R-43.

IN CITY COUNCIL

May 15, 2000

MAYOR GALLUCCIO

WHEREAS: This year marks the 225th anniversary of the start of the American Revolution in 1775; and

WHEREAS: The City of Cambridge played an important role during that pivotal year in the nation's drive for freedom from foreign tyranny and the right to self rule; and

WHEREAS: During this year, the Revolutionary Cambridge- The 225th Anniversary project will highlight Cambridge's essential role in the events of 1775 which led to the nation's independence in 1776; and

WHEREAS: Revolutionary Cambridge-The 225th Anniversary is a joint effort of the Cambridge Historical Society and the Longfellow National Historic Site which will be presented by the Historic Cambridge Collaborative, a joint effort of Cambridge organizations; and

WHEREAS: Former Mayor Francis H. Duehay will serve as Honorary Chair of the Revolutionary Cambridge-the 225th Anniversary project; and

WHEREAS: The major event commemorating Cambridge's role in the events of 1775 will be Revolutionary Cambridge Discovery Day, which will be held on July 1 and will include events throughout the City; now therefor be it

RESOLVED: That this City Council urge all Cambridge residents to be aware of and participate in the various events planned for Cambridge Discovery Day on July 1; and be it further

RESOLVED: That this City Council urge Cambridge residents to learn more about the important role our City played in this nation's drive for independence; and be it further

RESOLVED: That this City Council extend its thanks to the Cambridge Historical Society, the Longfellow National Historic Site, the members of the Historic Cambridge Collaborative, all other participants in the Revolutionary Cambridge – The 225th Anniversary project, and to former Mayor Francis H. Duehay for his role as honorary chair; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the City Clerk forward, on behalf of the entire City Council, a suitably engrossed copy of this resolution to the Revolutionary Cambridge-the 225th Anniversary project.

582R

Resolution #43

Urge Cambridge residents to be aware of and participate in the various events planned for Cambridge Discovery Day on July 1, 2000.

Mayor Galluccio

In City Council May 15, 2000

ORDER ADOPTED