

CAMBRIDGE,

December 24 1900

To the Honorable, the City Council of the City of Cambridge:

Respectfully represents

of

Cambridge

that on the 24 day of

November

A. D. 1900

he was in the employ of the City of Cambridge in the Police

Department

as a

Patrolman

, and was then engaged at work at or near

Dorchester St. Auburn

Street, and while in the performance of his duties, without any fault on his part, sustained injuries by being tripped while making an arrest

(Here state in full how, and the person or thing by whom you were injured, and in what part of your person you were injured.)

I placed Mrs. Hughes of 91 Drinker St under arrest for disturbance of peace he was with a number of his friends and while on way to station some one of them tripped me from behind and I fell injuring my left arm and damaged my uniform coat to the extent of $2.00 that by reason of said injuries he has been unable to perform any duties as such

from the time of his injury to and including on November 26 + 27 a period of two days, half pay allowed, making one full day due working days, and, during all this time, he did not work, solely because of his inability so to do by reason of these injuries; that his inability so to work has not been increased or extended because of any other independent prior injury, ailment or disease known to him, or by reason of any act or negligence on his part; that he returned to his work the 28th day of

November

He hereby agrees to give full and complete information to the City Solicitor, City Physician, and all other agents sent him in behalf of the City, of all the facts and circumstances relating to or in any way affecting said injury, and his present, past and future condition of the body and health.

Wherefore he prays for a continuance of pay during the time of disability as aforesaid.
