Dear Councillor Duehay and other members of the Cambridge City Council,

I want to bring to your attention the 100th birthday of a long-term Cambridge resident, Norma Pawlowski. Born Norma Anderson in 1890, she was reared in a frontier home in Nebraska. Her 100th birthday is July 2, 1990. Norma moved east to attend the New England Conservatory of Music from which she graduated. In 1914 she moved to 647 Concord Ave, Cambridge to live with her husband Carl Pawlowski. She lived at 647 Concord Ave until 1989. Last year, she broke hip and has been living at Belmont Manor Nursing Home ever since.

Norma Pawlowski is a remarkable woman. To this day she is articulate and insightful about human nature and the 100-year history she has known. She is extremely positive in outlook; when asked, she proclaims that life has been wonderful for her.

Thank you for your time and attention to this matter.

Sincerely,
Anne Fine
