WHEREAS: Each year, during the month of Ramadan, Muslims from around the world fast daily from first light until sundown; and

WHEREAS: By cutting themselves off from the comforts of the world, Muslims hope to gain a fuller understanding of the tribulations of the poor as well as a greater closeness to Allah; and

WHEREAS: The month of Ramadan begins at the first sight of the new moon, which this year occurred during the week of February 1st, and continues for thirty rigorous days of discipline and self-denial; and

WHEREAS: This year, the City of Cambridge has been particularly blessed with the opening of a new Islamic Center and Mosque, located at 204 Prospect Street, a wonderful and welcome addition to the diversity and resources of our City; and

WHEREAS: The Islamic community of the City of Cambridge and the Greater Boston area, and indeed all believers of Islam, invite everyone to learn more about the Islamic faith and the purpose of Ramadan; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this Cambridge City Council does hereby recognize the importance and purpose of the month of Ramadan for the Islamic community across the City; and be it further

RESOLVED: That all residents of the city are encouraged to learn more about the Islamic faith and to support their Muslim neighbors during this challenging month.
