IN CITY COUNCIL

January 13, 1992

COUNCILLOR RUSSELL
COUNCILLOR SULLIVAN

WHEREAS: This City Council was deeply saddened last year at learning of the death of Stephen Anderson; and

WHEREAS: Having been an employee of the Middlesex County Courthouse since 1975, Steve was well known to many as a person with a quick smile and a joke, ready and eager to offer his time and assistance to friends and co-workers, and willing to lend an ear to those seeking a little support and understanding; and

WHEREAS: Steve, a lifelong city resident who was educated in Cambridge schools, was a familiar face at parks and playgrounds throughout North Cambridge; and

WHEREAS: Steve had a fervent enthusiasm for all sports, both as a fan and participant, having played for many years in Cambridge's recreational basketball and softball programs; and

WHEREAS: All those who came to know Steve would inevitably share his irresistible enthusiasm for life, and will forever remember him for his dedication to family, his loyalty to friends, his quick wit, uplifting personality and optimistic outlook even in the face of great difficulty; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this City Council does hereby name and dedicate the basketball courts at Rindge Field in honor of the memory of Stephen Anderson; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the City Manager confer with family and friends of Stephen Anderson on a proper memorial to be placed at that location.

In City Council January 13, 1992.

Adopted by the affirmative vote of nine members.
