

To the City Council of the City of Cambridge Gentlemen,

Whereas, The Surveyors of Highways did, by an order passed Oct. 10. 1860, direct me to move my fence at the corner of Pine and Harvard Street, within ten days, or in default thereof to pay to the City, the expense of said removal,

Therefore, I hereby, while expressing my willingness to comply with said order, do ~~hereby~~ protest against the right of the City to take my property without rendering suitable remuneration, and declare that by making said removal in obedience to said Order, I do not intend to waive any of my rights in the property which by said removal is thrown into the street.
