

Whereas Michael Gaouette, a resident of our City since 1986, has donated more than 200 hours of volunteer instruction to the youth of this City, and

Whereas Michael, a resident of Canada, is about to complete his studies at Harvard College and embark on graduate studies in Political Science, and

Whereas Michael has become a beloved coach and admired instructor for the youth of our city, particularly the youth from our poorest neighborhoods who have taken part in the Learn-to-Skate Program sponsored by Cambridge Youth Hockey, and

Whereas Michael has exemplified the spirit of individual effort within a cooperative, team effort involving youth of all backgrounds and ability levels,

Be it resolved that the City of Cambridge commends Michael Gaouette for his excellent and exemplary volunteer service to our children, and

Be it resolved that the City of Cambridge commends Cambridge Youth Hockey for establishing the Michael Gaouette Community Service Award so that those volunteers who measure up to Michael's high standards in commitment, compassion, devotion, and teaching skills will receive their duly-earned recognition from the community at large.
