Light that tree

The official Tree Lighting Ceremony of the city of Cambridge will take place Friday, Nov. 29, 4-6 pm at the Charles Square courtyard, located at the corner of Eliot and Bennett streets in Harvard Square.

The Cambridge Fire Department will collect toys for needy children. Visitors are encouraged to bring new, unopened toys and place them beneath the 50-foot tree. After the tree is lit, the fire department will deliver the toys to the US Marines who distribute the gifts to children in need.

Entertainment will include Santa and Mrs. Claus, the Victorian Car-olers quartet, Bullock Brothers and Children Gospel Choir, a collection of street performers including a juggler, tightrope walker, jester and balloon artist, and a petting zoo with live reindeer. Henrietta's Table, Rialto and Cafe Giannino restaurants will offer selected holiday goodies.

This event is free and open to the public. For more information, call the Charles Hotel at 864-1200.

Temple holds auction

The Social Justice Committee of Temple Beth Shalom is hosting the sixth annual Arts, Crafts, Goods, and Services Auction on Sunday, Nov. 17, noon to 3 pm. Many of the items have been donated from local artisans and businesses. Previewing begins at 1 pm.

Temple Beth Shalom is located at 8 Tremont St., between Inman and Central squares. This is a fund-raiser for the temple's Tzedakah Fund, to assist those in need with basic human needs. Admission is $3 for adults and $2 for children. For more information, call 864-6388.
