City Hall
Cambridge, MA 02139

Dear Mayor Duehay and City Councillors:

For the second year in a row, the Harvard Square Business Association is co-sponsoring an "Octoberfest" in Harvard Square.

This year's festival will take place on Columbus Day weekend, starting Saturday, October 11, and continuing through Sunday, October 12th. Monday, October 13th, will be a rain date.

We are requesting the members of the City Council to support this event by attending it personally and by directing the following department heads to issue the various permits and licenses required to hold the event: namely,

1) the Chief of Police to issue two one-day permits for the sale of food, beverages, and merchandise on Sunday, October 12, and Monday, October 13, 1980, in order to comply with the Massachusetts' laws governing the observance of Sundays and holidays;

2) the Director of Traffic and Parking to permit the closing of Boylston Street between Winthrop Park and the Charlesbank Trust on Sunday, October 12 and Monday, October 13, 1980;

3) the License Commission to issue a special three-day license, to sell wines and malt beverages, from Saturday, October 12, 1980, through Monday, October 13th, 1980;

4) the Commissioner of Public Works to issue a sidewalk sale permit, effective Saturday, October 12, 1980 through Monday, October 13, 1980;

5) the Cambridge Health Inspection Department to permit the sale of food and beverages outdoors, from Saturday, October 11, 1980 through Monday, October 13, 1980;

6) the above or any other department heads not yet named to issue any permits or licenses omitted in this request.

We welcome your participation in this year's Octoberfest and encourage each of you to attend the event.

Yours very truly,

Anne M. Thomas

P.S. We will also need permission to put up banners across
Boylston Street on Saturday and Sunday.
