IN CITY COUNCIL

December 11, 1989

MAYOR VELLUCCI

- WHEREAS: Drunk driving claims the lives of more than 23,000 Americans each year; and
- WHEREAS: Each year, nearly 540,000 people suffer injuries in alcohol-related traffic crashes. About 40,000 of these are serious injuries; and
- WHEREAS: Traffic crashes are the greatest single cause of death for people between the ages of five and thirty-four. More than half of these are alcohol-related; and
- WHEREAS: S.A.D.D. (Students Against Drunk Driving), and, M.A.D.D. (Mothers Against Drunk Driving), are inviting Americans to "Tie One On For Safety", by participating in Project Red Ribbon, a national holiday public awareness campaign. By tying a red ribbon on a visible location on their vehicles, Americans can show their commitment to driving sober this holiday season and throughout the year; and
- WHEREAS: December 10-16, 1989, has been designated as National Drunk and Drugged Driving Awareness Week; and
- WHEREAS: The United States Conference of Mayors is calling upon all cities to join in a national mobilization that will raise our citizens' awareness of the threat posed by drunk driving; now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That I, Alfred E. Vellucci, Mayor of the City of Cambridge, do hereby declare December 10-16, 1989, as NATIONAL DRUNK AND DRUGGED DRIVING AWARENESS WEEK in Cambridge, and urge all residents to join forces against drunk driving.

In City Council December 11, 1989.
 Adopted by the affirmative vote of eight members.
