WHEREAS: The City of Cambridge is pleased to be the host City for the New England Annual Conference of the First Episcopal District of the African Methodist Episcopal Church; and

WHEREAS: St. Paul A.M.E. Church, the host Church, and Reverend Dr. LeRoy Attles are integral to the civic and spiritual life of the City of Cambridge; and

WHEREAS: The City of Cambridge is no stranger to the legacy of African Methodism. "Bishop Richard Allen Drive" proclaims to us daily the important history of this great denomination. Our city is also proud of the contemporary work of the A.M.E. Church. Here in our midst, St. Paul A.M.E. leads the entire city in its wide ranging provision of housing and social services. Reverend Dr. Attles is also an essential member of our community leadership in many areas; and

WHEREAS: Cambridge is the home of Harvard University and the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, it is also a city which has been blessed by the spiritual leadership and social leadership of St. Paul A.M.E. Church, our largest protestant congregation; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: The Mayor, Francis H. Duehay and City Councillors Kenneth Reeves, Katherine Triantafillou, Kathleen Born, Henrietta Davis, Sheila Russell, Michael Sullivan, Timothy Toomey and Vice Mayor Anthony Galluccio welcome Bishop Phillip Cousins and all of the participants in this years' annual conference; and be it further

RESOLVED: We further declare April 13-18 First Episcopal District New England Annual Conference Week in Cambridge and wish the conference every success and much progress.
