

City of Cambridge.

In Board of Aldermen Octo 18th 1871 —

Whereas, it being well known that North Avenue, from the bridge near Porter's Station to Arlington line, is not at a proper grade, in consequence of the condition of the Rail Road track running through said Avenue, it is hereby — Ordered, that said section of North Avenue be at once placed at such a grade as shall conform to the convenience of travel, and the actual requirement of this City. —

Referred to the Committee on Roads, and Bridges, on the part of this Board.

Attest: Justin A. Jacobs City Clerk
