I am an artist and resident of Cambridge, and I am writing to urge you to give your full support for the public art project that Mags Harries has proposed for Fresh Pond. I have lived in Cambridge for twenty years and have known Mags Harries for ten years, and I think her work is of the highest quality. She has an international reputation for her public art work, and Cambridge is very fortunate to have her as a resident artist who contributes to her home town. Her work is already a familiar part of Boston and Cambridge. The Fresh Pond project has already gone through the long process of application, review, design, and approval. Please support it.

Thank you very much.

Sincerely,

Lillian Hsu-Flanders
