

City of Cambridge

18.

IN CITY COUNCIL
March 21, 1994

COUNCILLOR MYERS
COUNCILLOR BORN
COUNCILLOR DUEHAY
COUNCILLOR TOOMEY
COUNCILLOR TRIANTAFILLOU
VICE MAYOR RUSSELL

WHEREAS: In April of 1994, the U. S. Department of Labor and the Department of Education will be issuing grants to states who are in the forefront of establishing comprehensive School-to-Work transition systems; and

WHEREAS: These grants represent a new approach to employment and training by the U. S. Government, with the hope of building comprehensive employment and training systems involving businesses, governments, labor organizations and schools; and

WHEREAS: In the course of the past several years, the City of Cambridge has been a leading example of a city that has worked to build a comprehensive employment and training system, through its founding of the City-Wide Youth Employment Office, and the enactment of the Workforce Development Policy; and

WHEREAS: School-to-Work transition programs provide valuable training to young people and can provide genuine opportunities for career success; and

WHEREAS: The approaches that have been implemented on the last several years in the City of Cambridge, are in synch with the goals and program guidelines of the School-to-Work legislation that is being enacted by the U.S. Congress; and

WHEREAS: The States and Commonwealths have a central role in the coordination and delivery of services on the local level; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the Cambridge City Council call upon his Excellency, Governor William H. Weld and the leaders of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts legislative bodies to take steps to ensure that the Commonwealth is in consideration to receive the funding for the School-to-Work transition funding; and be it further

RESOLVED: That Governor William H. Weld and his Economic Development Team be requested to work with individual communities in the development of any and all grant applications, and specifically to contact the City of Cambridge about avenues and approaches that might be tried; and be it further

RESOLVED: That copies of this Resolution be sent to Governor William H. Weld, U.S.Senators, Kennedy and Kerry, U.S. Congressman Kennedy, House Majority Leader Flaherty and State Representatives, Thompson, Toomey for their advocacy on this important legislation.

In City Council March 21, 1994.

Adopted by the affirmative vote of eight members.

Attest:- D. Margaret Drury, City Clerk.

A true copy;

ATTEST:-

A handwritten signature in cursive script, reading "D. Margaret Drury".

D. Margaret Drury
City Clerk

MYERS

NON-CONSENT -

Whereas in April of 1994, the Federal Department of Labor and the Department of Education will be issuing grants to states who are in the forefront of establishing comprehensive school-to-work transition systems

Whereas these grants represent a new approach to employment and training by the federal government, with the hope of building comprehensive employment and training systems involving businesses, governments, labor organizations and schools;

Whereas in the course of the past several years, the City of Cambridge has been a leading example of a city that worked to build a comprehensive employment and training system, through its founding of the Youth Employment Office, and the enactment of the workforce development policy;

Whereas school-to-work transition programs provide valuable training to young people and can provide genuine opportunities at career success;

Whereas the approaches that have been worked on in the last several years in the City of Cambridge are in synch with the goals and program guidelines of the School-to-Work legislation that is being enacted by the Congress;

Whereas states have a vital role in the coordination and delivery of services on the local level;

Therefore be it resolved that the City Council call upon Governor Weld and leaders of the Massachusetts legislative delegation to take steps to ensure that the Commonwealth of Massachusetts is in consideration to receive funding for school-to-work transition funding;

Be it further resolved that Governor Weld and his economic development team be requested to work with individual communities in development of any and all grant applications, and specifically to contact the City of Cambridge about avenues and approaches that might be tried; ~~in the development of school to-work transition systems~~

Be it further resolved that copies of this resolution be delivered to Governor Weld, Senators Kennedy and Kerry, Congressman Joe Kennedy, Majority Leader Charles Flaherty and State Representatives Alvin Thompson and Tim Toomey for their advocacy on this legislation;

City of Cambridge

18.

IN CITY COUNCIL
March 21, 1994

COUNCILLOR MYERS

WHEREAS: In April of 1994, the U. S. Department of Labor and the Department of Education will be issuing grants to states who are in the forefront of establishing comprehensive School-to-Work transition systems; and

WHEREAS: These grants represent a new approach to employment and training by the U. S. Government, with the hope of building comprehensive employment and training systems involving businesses, governments, labor organizations and schools; and

WHEREAS: In the course of the past several years, the City of Cambridge has been a leading example of a city that has worked to build a comprehensive employment and training system, through its founding of the City-Wide Youth Employment Office, and the enactment of the Workforce Development Policy; and

WHEREAS: School-to-Work transition programs provide valuable training to young people and can provide genuine opportunities for career success; and

WHEREAS: The approaches that have been implemented on the last several years in the City of Cambridge, are in synch with the goals and program guidelines of the School-to-Work legislation that is being enacted by the U.S. Congress; and

WHEREAS: The States and Commonwealths have a central role in the coordination and delivery of services on the local level; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the Cambridge City Council call upon his Excellency, Governor William H. Weld and the leaders of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts legislative bodies to take steps to ensure that the Commonwealth is in consideration to receive the funding for the School-to-Work transition funding; and be it further

RESOLVED: That Governor William H. Weld and his Economic Development Team be requested to work with individual communities in the development of any and all grant applications, and specifically to contact the City of Cambridge about avenues and approaches that might be tried; and be it further

RESOLVED: That copies of this Resolution be sent to Governor William H. Weld, U.S. Senators, Kennedy and Kerry, U.S. Congressman Kennedy, House Majority Leader Flaherty and State Representatives, Thompson, Toomey for their advocacy on this important legislation.

Don, Anheuser, Voorney, T. Manta -
Non-Consent Order #18
Fillon, Russell R-177
Councillor Myers re: School-towork transition systems.

UU

Order Adopted

In City Council,

March 21, 1994