ORDERED:

That the School Committee adopt the following resolution:

WHEREAS, The intersection of Columbia Street and Bishop Allen Drive has long been known to be hazardous, and

WHEREAS, A child attending the Cambridge Public Schools was recently injured there on his way to school, and

WHEREAS, It seems to be only a matter of time before more serious, even tragic accidents occur there,

NOW THEREFORE, be it resolved that the Cambridge School Committee ask and urge the Cambridge City Council and City Manager to post appropriate warning signs or lights near the intersection of Columbia Street and Bishop Allen Drive, and to hire a crossing guard for that intersection.

Dear Ms. Drury:

I am enclosing a copy of an order adopted by the School Committee at the regular meeting of November 10, 1992 concerning the hazardous intersection of Columbia Street and Bishop Allen Drive, and asking that appropriate warning signs or lights be posted near that intersection. The Committee further asked that a crossing guard be hired for that intersection.

Your consideration of this request will be appreciated.

Very truly yours,

Claire E. Rodley
