

Cambridge, Jan 5 1870

To the Honorable, the City Council, of the City of Cambridge.

The undersigned respectfully ~~proposes~~ represents that she was ordered to remove her house on Broadway, by the City Council of 1870, and was awarded a certain sum as damages therefor; but that the sum was quite insufficient to cover the expenses of removal, and the cost of repairs made necessary thereby. She therefore asks that the further sum of $469.76 be awarded and paid to her, that being the amount that she has been obliged to disburse in excess of the sum awarded to her by the city.
