into the soup? Should I tear? Fold? Sometimes, a meal can stimulate the tongue and the mind; the bread bowl is a shining example of deliciousness crossed with difficulty. The Paul Revere

Chili is tantalizingly tasty.

Boston Chowda Co. offahs more than just soup and mis-spellings. Sandwiches and wrayaps ah also available. The lobstah roll is a highlight. Succulent chunks of fine lobstah ah mixed with mayo to terrific effect. If theyah's any problem with the sandwiches, it's the chewy French rolls—they fit the roasted chicken well, but make the lobstah roll end up tasting a tad too breadly. Perhaps a hot dog bun would be less of an intrusion on the tendah taste of the lobstah.

Four varieties of pot pies ah offahed and the Chicken Pot Pie is excellent. Its strong crust provides the real pie appeal sadly missing from HUDS's weak attempts.

Fresh cahn-bread is a treat, and the chawco-late chip cookies—baked fresh on premises—ah the perfect capper to a wonderful meal. In the last cookie I had, the chips were melted and gloriously gooey. Seating, at high tables in the centah of the Garage, allow for people watching and swiveling. Boston Chowda Co. is a welcome addition to the neighbahhood, especially during the wintah.
