IN CITY COUNCIL

MAYOR VELLUCCI

October 24, 1988

- WHEREAS: The National and Local Mandate to initiate private and public sector involvement in eliminating hunger and homelessness throughout America is a priority for our nation; and
- WHEREAS: Hunger and homelessness are twin and related dangers to an increasing number of our City's citizens; and
- WHEREAS: Adequate food is essential to the physical and developmental well-being of all age groups; and
- WHEREAS: Adequate housing is a necessary condition to ensure the safety, security, and growth of all persons; and
- WHEREAS: The Cambridge Economic Opportunity Committee (C.E.O.C.), the Cambridge Food Pantry Network, the Cambridge Department of Human Services (D.H.S.P.), and Homeward Bound, a volunteer partner of D.H.S.P., have joined together in a collaborative effort to create an awareness "week" to address these basic human needs; and
- WHEREAS: The focus of this "week" is the recognition of the fundamental right of all Cambridge and other persons to adequate food and housing to promote dignity, health, and stability in all women, men, and children; and
- WHEREAS: The City of Cambridge recognises the most valuable work that CEOC, Cambridge Food Pantries, the Department of Human Services Programs and Homeward Bound does to address the needs of our hungry and homeless; now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: I, Alfred E. Vellucci, Mayor of the City of Cambridge, do proclaim November 14 - November 24, 1988 as HUNGER - HOMELESS AWARENESS WEEK: Feeding the Hungry - Housing the Homeless; and be it further
- RESOLVED: That I call upon leaders of the business, educational and religious communities to join together to eradicate hunger and homelessness in Cambridge
