IN CITY COUNCIL

NOVEMBER 26, 1990

COUNCILLOR RUSSELL

ORDERED:

That the City Manager direct the Traffic and Parking Department to look into the situation at the corner of Royal Avenue and Concord Avenue, pursuant to the request of the residents whose names appear on the attached petition; and report back to the City Council.

WE, the undersigned, request NO PARKING signs posted with an appropriate fee, also posted, on the corner of Concord Avenue and Royal Avenue. The vision from this corner can certainly cause serious problems which would be unavoidable from Royal Avenue. The yardage to the corner of Huron Avenue is small and with a bus stop and businesses it is a reasonable request to take due care of the residential neighbors. As interested and concerned citizens and residents, we request an appraisal and NO PARKING sign or signs in protection of the neighborhood residents and their families,

Dear Sheila;

Please find enclosed a petition, signed by the neighbors who live on Royal Avenue and Concord Avenue, requesting "NO STOPPING" signs at the corner of Royal and Concord Avenues.

We want some action taken by the traffic department and if necessary by the City Council.

Thank you.

Very truly yours,

Mary Hassett
