ADDRESS ALL COMMUNICATIONS TO
TIMOTHY F. LEAHY
CHIEF OF POLICE

Cambridge, Mass., November 22, 1937.

Mr. Frederick H. Burke,

City Clerk,

Dear Sir:

In reply to your communication of November 16, Inst. relative to an order introduced by Councillor Toomey I submit the following report.

The Prowl Cars should be traded each year in view of the fact that they are run twenty four hours each day and during one year they are operated practically three years of service and after that length of time they require a lot of parts and repairs, and have no real turn in value.

Attached find the real milage of each car.

Respectfully submitted,

Timothy F. Leahy
Chief Of Police.

Communication from the Chief of Police in response to an order of the City Council adopted on Nov. 16, 1937, requesting information relative to condition of Police Patrol Car.

File With No. 44, Police 1937.
