

City of Cambridge

45.

IN CITY COUNCIL

November 5, 1990

COUNCILLOR CYR
VICE MAYOR REEVES

- WHEREAS: Cambridge is a community where individuals from different cultures have come together, learning not only to coexist but to build a community that draws from the strengths of each and creates a stronger whole; and
- WHEREAS: Concerns have been raised by various citizens about incidents involving Members of the Saudi Royal Family, Prince Turki, his family members and entourage, that have led to public expressions of concern; and
- WHEREAS: Our Saudi visitors have expressed to members of this Council their concern and dismay with misunderstandings which have led to public criticisms; now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That the City Council go on record proclaiming Cambridge as a city that welcomes visitors to and to invite the family of Prince Turki, to meet with the Mayor and Members of the City Council in an informal setting to share with us their impressions on their stay, to resolve any misunderstandings, to meet more of our citizens and participate more fully in our community.

In City Council November 5, 1990.

Adopted by the affirmative vote of nine members.

Attest:- Joseph E. Connarton, City Clerk.

A true copy;

ATTEST:-

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "Joseph E. Connarton".

Joseph E. Connarton
City Clerk

November 1, 1990

Councillor Cyr
Councillor Reeves

Whereas: Cambridge is a community where individuals from different cultures have come together, learning not only to coexist but to build a community that draws from the strengths of each and creates a stronger whole. And

Whereas: Concerns have been raised by various citizens about incidents involving Members the Saudi Royal Family, Prince _____, his family members and entourage, that have led to public expressions of concern. And

Whereas: Our Saudi visitors have expressed to members of this Council their concern and dismay with misunderstandings which have led to public criticisms. Now therefore be it

Resolved: That the City Council go on record proclaiming Cambridge as a city that welcomes visitors to and to invite the family of Prince _____ to meet with the Mayor and Members of the City Council in an informal setting to share with us their impressions on their stay, to resolve any misunderstandings, to meet more our citizens, and participate more fully in our community.

City of Cambridge

45.

IN CITY COUNCIL

November 5, 1990

COUNCILLOR CYR
VICE MAYOR REEVES

- WHEREAS: Cambridge is a community where individuals from different cultures have come together, learning not only to coexist but to build a community that draws from the strengths of each and creates a stronger whole; and
- WHEREAS: Concerns have been raised by various citizens about incidents involving Members of the Saudi Royal Family, Prince Purke, his family members and entourage, that have led to public expressions of concern; and
- WHEREAS: Our Saudi visitors have expressed to members of this Council their concern and dismay with misunderstandings which have led to public criticisms; now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That the City Council go on record proclaiming Cambridge as a city that welcomes visitors to and to invite the family of Prince Purke, to meet with the Mayor and Members of the City Council in an informal setting to share with us their impressions on their stay, to resolve any misunderstandings, to meet more of our citizens and participate more fully in our community.

City Council NOV. 5 1990

Adopted by the affirmative vote

of 9 members

Joseph E. Conerton City Clerk

Order # 45

5-1059

Councillor Cyr and Vice Mayor Reeves resolutions inviting the family of Prince Purke to meet with Mayor and City Council to share their impressions of their stay in our community.

In City Council,

November 5, 1990

Order adopted