100th Anniversary

100th Anniversary Committee
International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers
Local 103

January, 2000

Dear Friend:

On May 6, 2000, Local 103, I.B.E.W., will celebrate its 100th Anniversary. To commemorate this historic occasion, thousands of members will be coming together at the Hynes Convention Center in Boston for an evening full of festivities and remembrance.

Local 103, I.B.E.W., has grown significantly over the past 100 years, with more than 5,000 members and a Headquarters comprised of Local Union Offices, Trust Fund Offices, Meeting and Function Halls and a Training Facility second to none in the industry.

At our Centennial Celebration, we will commemorate our growth and achievements and rededicate ourselves to approach the future with the same goals and purpose of our founding members.

We would like to invite you to be a part of this special evening by placing an ad in our 100th Anniversary Commemorative Ad Book. The Ad Book presents a unique and special opportunity for you to share your thoughts, memories and wishes with our members, associates, retirees, families and friends of Local 103.

To place an ad or message in the Ad Book, please refer to the enclosed order form. Please feel free to contact Maura Barry at 617-912-3800 if you have any questions or would like to receive additional information.

Together, we will celebrate our proud past and bright future. We sincerely hope that you will choose to be a part of our Centennial Celebration.

Sincerely,

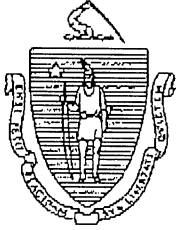

Rich Gambino
