COUNCILLOR SULLIVAN
COUNCILLOR TOOMEY
COUNCILLOR TRIANTAFILLOU
COUNCILLOR WALSH

WHEREAS: For the past four years, teams from one hundred and twenty-four countries from all corners of the globe worked, hoped, and prayed for a chance to come to the United States to participate in one of the greatest sporting exhibitions ever conceived, the World Cup of Soccer; and

WHEREAS: Due to hard work, boundless skill, and the unwavering support of their fans, only twenty-four national teams made it to the United States for the 1994 edition of the tournament; and

WHEREAS: One of the countries whose force of talent and strength led its soccer team to America was ITALY; and

WHEREAS: ITALY has a record in international and World Cup Soccer of unsurpassed excellence, being one of only three nations to win at least three World Cup competitions; and

WHEREAS: The ITALIAN SOCCER TEAM and its fans have much to be proud of, out-dueling many talented squads to make it the finals of this glorious event; and

WHEREAS: There can be no losers in this World Cup, where the honor of making it to the event is truly a victory in itself; and

WHEREAS: The members of the ITALIAN SOCCER TEAM, in the words of its coach Arrigo Sacchi, "gave everything they had to give," and in so doing, proved themselves worthy of the title "champions"; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this Cambridge City Council, on behalf of all of the residents of Cambridge and soccer fans everywhere, does hereby offer its congratulations to the ITALIAN SOCCER TEAM, as well as to all of its fans and supporters, for the team's illustrious showing in the 1994 World Cup of Soccer.

In City Council August 1, 1994.
