

CITY OF CAMBRIDGE

CITY HALL, CAMBRIDGE, MASSACHUSETTS 02139 • TEL. 876-6800

Edward A. Crane
Councilor

In City Council,
June 2, 1969.

WHEREAS:-

Robert Briscoe, Irish Nationalist, who served 38 years in the Irish Parliament and two terms as the first Jewish Lord Mayor of Dublin, died peacefully on May 30, 1969, and

WHEREAS:-

His personal and public life was the epitome of racial and religious tolerance, and

WHEREAS:-

On two of his visits (1957, 1962) to "my other country" he was officially hosted by the City of Cambridge, therefore be it

RESOLVED:-

That this City Council herewith extends sincere sympathy to his large and talented family, upon their loss, and be it further

RESOLVED:-

That as Honorable "Bob" Briscoe joins "the great majority" we express our gratitude and a friendly Godbless for the many good lessons and pleasant memories this charming guest of the "University City" gave to us, to Dublin, all Ireland, and the world, and be it further

RESOLVED:-

That a copy of this resolution be sent to his widow, the former Lillian Melanie Isaacs, and to President Eamon deValera, Aras An Uachtarain, Phoenix Park, Dublin, Ireland.

In City Council June 2, 1969.
Adopted by a voice vote.

Paul E. Leahy
Temporary City Clerk.

S-129

RESOLUTIONS

On death of Robert Briscoe

June 2, 1969.

Mr. Crane