

City of Cambridge

72.

IN CITY COUNCIL

April 28, 1997

COUNCILLOR DUEHAY
COUNCILLOR DAVIS
VICE MAYOR BORN
COUNCILLOR GALLUCCIO
COUNCILLOR REEVES
MAYOR RUSSELL
COUNCILLOR SULLIVAN
COUNCILLOR TOOMEY
COUNCILLOR TRIANTAFILLOU

WHEREAS: Sarah Hemphill, Program Coordinator for the Health of the City Program since 1994, will shortly be leaving her position; and

WHEREAS: Sarah is a graduate of Yale University and the Harvard School of Public Health and served in public health assignments in Connecticut and Massachusetts before coming to Cambridge; and

WHEREAS: Sarah in her position as program coordinator for this innovative program was highly successful in fund-raising, raising grants to support: exercise in the schools, the nutrition survey, the activities of the men of color taskforce, the dental health of children, and the program of home visiting; and

WHEREAS: Sarah organized preceptorships and training for dozens of health professional students, ranging from nurse practitioners to public health and medical students, engaging them: in serving as mentors at CRLS, in working on the Teen Health Survey data, in evaluating addiction services, in planning domestic violence training, in training nurses and physicians about asthma care, in supervising a high school student survey of community perceptions about health care, in conducting health promotion education at CRLS, and in implementing a citywide no TV week; and

WHEREAS: Sarah contributed greatly to projects beyond her assigned role, like the Public Health Assessment of Cambridge, completed this spring for the Public Health Commission and the City Council; and

WHEREAS: Sarah Hemphill was the prime force - by personality, strength of character, energy, commitment and intelligence - in bringing together individuals from a wide variety of professions, work places, perspectives, and backgrounds to work collaboratively to improve the health of the city; and

WHEREAS: Sarah possesses the unusual knack of bringing people together who don't usually meet together, including members of the sacred academic community, building relationships with them and then motivating them to work cooperatively toward common public health objectives and concrete programs which serve Cambridge residents; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this City Council go on record, on behalf of all those who live and work in Cambridge, as recognizing Sarah Hemphill's many accomplishments as a steadfast advocate for health promotion and disease prevention which will continue for many years to benefit the health of this city; and be it further

RESOLVED: That this City Council express to Sarah Hemphill its best wishes for continued professional success in her career as she tackles new challenges; and be it further

RESOLVED: That this resolution be presented to Sarah Hemphill on behalf of the entire City Council at a special reception in her honor to be held on Wednesday, April 30, 1997.

In City Council April 28, 1997

Adopted by the affirmative vote of nine members.

Attest:- D. Margaret Drury, City Clerk.

A true copy;

ATTEST:-

D. Margaret Drury
City Clerk

~~Duehay~~
Davis

Duehay

72 RECEIVED BY
OFFICE OF CITY CLERK

97 APR 24 PM 12:48

CAMBRIDGE MA.

whereas Sarah Hemphill, Program Coordinator for the Health of the City Program since 1994, will shortly be leaving her position;

Whereas Sarah is a graduate of Yale University and the Harvard School of Public health and served in public health assignments in Connecticut and Massachusetts before coming to Cambridge;

Whereas Sarah in her position as program coordinator for this innovative program was highly successful in fund-raising, raising grants to support: exercise in the schools, the nutrition survey, the activities of the men of color task force, the dental health of children, and the program of home visiting;

Whereas Sarah organized preceptorships and training for dozens of health professional students, ranging from nurse practitioners to public health and medical students, engaging them: in serving as mentors at CRLS, in working on the Teen Health Survey data, in evaluating addiction services, in planning domestic violence training, in training nurses and physicians about asthma care, in supervising a high school student survey of community perceptions about health care, in conducting health promotion education at CRLS, and in implementing a citywide no TV week;

Whereas Sarah contributed greatly to projects beyond her assigned role, like the Public Health Assessment of Cambridge, completed this spring for the Public Health Commission and the City Council;

Whereas Sarah Hemphill was the prime force - by personality, strength of character, energy, commitment and intelligence - in bringing together individuals from a wide variety of professions, work places, perspectives, and backgrounds to work collaboratively to improve the health of the city;

Whereas Sarah possesses the unusual knack of bringing people together who don't usually meet together, including members of the sacred academic community, building relationships with them and then motivating them to work cooperatively toward common public health objectives and concrete programs which serve Cambridge residents;

Resolved that this City Council go on record, on behalf of all those who live and work in Cambridge, as recognizing Sarah Hemphill's many accomplishments as a steadfast advocate for health promotion and disease prevention which will continue for many years to benefit the health of this city;

Resolved that this City Council express to Sarah Hemphill its best wishes for continued professional success in her career as she tackles new challenges.

Resolved that this resolution be presented to Sarah Hemphill on behalf of the entire City Council at a special reception in her honor to be held on Wednesday, April 30, 1997.

April 24, 1997

Fax Memo to Deputy City Clerk Donna Lopez from Frank Duehay - 2 pages including this one. I will be in City Hall at 4 p.m. today in case there are questions.

RECEIVED BY
OFFICE OF CITY CLERK

97 APR 24 PM 12:48

CAMBRIDGE MA.

H Davis
F. Duchan?
rec. 4/18/97

~~Call Jean~~
~~Illeg~~ ~~Davis~~ ~~Box~~
Cheryl Wedd
908-1480 + 209

Order on: Sarah Humphill

Whereas Sarah Humphill
has been the ~~executive~~ ~~Prog~~
~~Coordinator~~ (?) of Health of the City
for 3 ~~the~~ years
Whereas while she has been the Health of the City project has grown
and contributed to the community

(1)

(2)

(3)

Whereas Sarah will be leaving the position her husband is in Washington DC

The CC ~~wishes~~ thank her for her outstanding effort on behalf of the health of the city of
Cambridge & its residents

And wishes her well in ~~her~~
the future.

WHEREAS: Sarah possesses the unusual knack of bringing people together who don't usually meet together, including members of the sacred academic community, building relationships with them and then motivating them to work cooperatively toward common public health objectives and concrete programs which serve Cambridge residents; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this City Council go on record, on behalf of all those who live and work in Cambridge, as recognizing Sarah Hemphill's many accomplishments as a steadfast advocate for health promotion and disease prevention which will continue for many years to benefit the health of this city; and be it further

RESOLVED: That this City Council express to Sarah Hemphill its best wishes for continued professional success in her career as she tackles new challenges; and be it further

RESOLVED: That this resolution be presented to Sarah Hemphill on behalf of the entire City Council at a special reception in her honor to be held on Wednesday, April 30, 1997.

City of Cambridge

72.

IN CITY COUNCIL

April 28, 1997

COUNCILLOR DAVIS
COUNCILLOR DUEHAY

WHEREAS: Sarah Hemphill, Program Coordinator for the Health of the City Program since 1994, will shortly be leaving her position; and

WHEREAS: Sarah is a graduate of Yale University and the Harvard School of Public Health and served in public health assignments in Connecticut and Massachusetts before coming to Cambridge; and

WHEREAS: Sarah in her position as program coordinator for this innovative program was highly successful in fund-raising, raising grants to support: exercise in the schools, the nutrition survey, the activities of the men of color taskforce, the dental health of children, and the program of home visiting; and

WHEREAS: Sarah organized preceptorships and training for dozens of health professional students, ranging from nurse practitioners to public health and medical students, engaging them: in serving as mentors at CRLS, in working on the Teen Health Survey data, in evaluating addiction services, in planning domestic violence training, in training nurses and physicians about asthma care, in supervising a high school student survey of community perceptions about health care, in conducting health promotion education at CRLS, and in implementing a citywide no TV week; and

WHEREAS: Sarah contributed greatly to projects beyond her assigned role, like the Public Health Assessment of Cambridge, completed this spring for the Public Health Commission and the City Council; and

WHEREAS: Sarah Hemphill was the prime force - by personality, strength of character, energy, commitment and intelligence - in bringing together individuals from a wide variety of professions, work places, perspectives, and backgrounds to work collaboratively to improve the health of the city; and

Consent ORder #72

Entire memb. p-630

Councillors ^{adelay} ~~Davis~~ and ^{adams} ~~Duehay~~ re: Best wishes to Sarah Hemphill, Program Coordinator for the Health of the City Program, for continued professional success in her career as she tackles new challenges.

In City Council April 28, 1997

ORDER ADOPTED