

Cambridge, Nov. 15. 1865.

To the Honorable, the City Council, of the City of Cambridge.

The undersigned respectfully pray that represent that they reside on Jay Street in Ward No. Four, that there are no street signs upon said street and that it is a source of great difficulty and vexation for those who desire to find said street, and that it is not easy to direct one to it, as there are several streets parallel with each other and presenting the same general appearance, wherefore they respectfully pray that signs may be put up upon said street.

Mrs. L. A. Gillan.

Mrs. M. Smith.
