WHEREAS: It has come to the attention of the City that the RHYTHM AND SPICE RESTAURANT, located at 315 Massachusetts Avenue in Central Square, will celebrate its first anniversary of operation in the City of Cambridge; and

WHEREAS: The RHYTHM AND SPICE RESTAURANT has presented a quality and variety of Caribbean culinary delights that are enticing to the eye, and heavenly to the taste; and

WHEREAS: The friendly, inviting, and supremely cultured atmosphere at the RHYTHM AND SPICE RESTAURANT lures the prospective customer not only to sample the delicacies, but to stay and enjoy the ambience; and

WHEREAS: The community must certainly express its pride in the three business partners who have developed and now manage the RHYTHM AND SPICE RESTAURANT, namely, ROBERT JONES, who hails from our most popular Caribbean paradise, the island of Jamaica (also the place of heritage of this writer), and SCOTT HILTON-CLARKE, a Trinidadian by heritage who also, by the way, is now a resident of this Fair City; and

WHEREAS: ROBERT JONES and SCOTT HILTON-CLARKE have significantly contributed to their community as active business residents and citizens, specifically as participants in the International Restaurants of Central Square, as merchant vendors at "Caribbean Carnival 1994," and recently donated their wonderful culinary creations to the recent 1995 Martin Luther King Ceremonies at the Cambridge Public Library in Central Square; and

WHEREAS: The RHYTHM AND SPICE RESTAURANT has rapidly become one of the most successful of several new business that have helped to revitalize Central Square; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the Cambridge City Council, on behalf of the residents of Central Square and the City at large, do hereby congratulate the RHYTHM AND SPICE RESTAURANT, in particular the proprietors of this establishment, ROBERT JONES and SCOTT HILTON-CLARKE, on their first and extremely successful year of operation, and wish them the greatest of success in this and all their future endeavors.
