WHEREAS: A healthy populace is the basic and primary factor in the development and expansion of a nation; and

WHEREAS: The Cambridge Hospital, selected as recipient of the acclaimed $75,000 Foster G. McGaw Award for excellence in community service, is a facility fully equipped to minister to the overall health needs and well-being of people of all ages, persuasions and socio-economic status; and

WHEREAS: The receipt of this prestigious award elevates this facility into the national forum and therefore should be regarded as one of the most highly esteemed healthcare institutions in the country; and

WHEREAS: In the listing of hospital ratings, The Cambridge Hospital has orchestrated one of the most extraordinary reverse innovations in the history of healthcare. It has earned national attention for its "hospital without walls" program. These varied programs include Healthcare for the Homeless, Housecalls for the Homebound Elderly, Multi-Disciplinary AIDS Program, School-Based Teen Health Center, Linguistic Minority Mental Health Teams, Nurse Midwifery and Hospital-sponsored Childcare; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this Cambridge City Council does hereby congratulate The Cambridge Hospital on being selected as winner of the esteemed Foster G. McGaw Award and does commend its many accomplishments. We take pride in your dedication to opening the doors of opportunity to a healthier and longer life span as it continues to raise health standards to new dimensions.
