COUNCILLOR MYERS
COUNCILLOR DUEHAY
MAYOR REEVES

WHEREAS: Recent events have brought difficult challenges to the Cambridge City Council in its effort to provide service to the residents of the City; and

WHEREAS: As we ring in a new year, with challenges ahead in terms of the need to bring a new supermarket into the City, to shape effective housing policies, to maintain fiscal solvency as we approach our levy limit, to run quality programs and provide basic services, there will be a need for the Council to work together, with a sense of respect and decency for each of its members; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the City Council commit itself to working together in 1995 to produce good outcomes for the City, and to take steps to ensure a sense of decency and respect for the viewpoints represented in this august body.

In City Council January 9, 1995.
