IN CITY COUNCIL

September 30, 1991

VICE MAYOR REEVES

WHEREAS: Thousands of people disappeared in Argentina between 1976 and 1983, detained by agents of the state; and

WHEREAS: Since 1977, mothers and grandmothers have gathered on the Plaza de Mayo in Buenos Aires to bear witness to the memory of their loved ones who "disappeared,"; and

WHEREAS: The City of Cambridge supports the struggle for justice and human rights of these courageous women, speaking out bravely in spite of their great grief and loss; and

WHEREAS: "Circle of Madness: Mothers of the Plaza de Mayo," an exhibit of photographs and poems depicting the lives of the mothers of the "Disappeared" in Argentina, is being presented at the Cambridge Multicultural Arts Center through October 18, sponsored by Amnesty International; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the City Council congratulate the Multicultural Arts Center and Amnesty International on this moving and significant exhibit, teaching us of the sacrifices that have been made by the mothers of Argentina, and educating the public on the vital, world-wide issue of human rights for all.

In City Council September 30, 1991.

Adopted by the affirmative vote of nine members.
