We announce the formation of and seek your help in a new, and exciting historical partnership to be located at the sacred place, the church building on the Northwest corner of the intersection of Third Street and Thorndike Street, in the East Cambridge neighborhood of Cambridge, Massachusetts.

The Polish American Heritage Center will include:

- Polonia Museum and Exhibits, - For all interested in Poland, Polish, Polish American culture, history, education.
- Polonia Media Center, - To provide access, publicity, documents.
- Church Tradition Trust, - To assist historic churches with preservation, and renewal.
- Copernican Archives, - For archiving, and documenting Polonia, and historical materials.

This church building constructed in 1827, the third oldest church structure standing in Cambridge has been the sacred place of three different denominations, Congregational, Episcopal, and Polish National Catholic, and will be respected in our unique and innovative plans.

We are forming a not-for-profit organization to keep history, culture, and sacred respect alive in this location. Please pledge your largest possible contribution and let us know how else you can help. Thank you.

Sincerely,
Vincent Lawrence Dixon
