PREAMBLE-PURPOSE

The Preamble of the Constitution and Statutes of the Supreme Emblem Club of the United States of America states that the organization is formed:

- (a) to perform charitable acts in the Community, in the States and the Nation;
- (b) to unite all Emblem Clubs in closer bond;
- (c) to further good fellowship among members;
- (d) to promote and protect the interests of clubs;
- (e) to bear true allegiance to the Constitution and Flag of the United States of America.

Emblem Club members and clubs are expected to conduct projects and activities in their communities; to subscribe to charitable endeavors that have particular interest in their state; to support national drives and foundations; to love and be concerned about Sister members, their families and friends; to work together with members of other clubs; to enhance the creativity and accomplishments of Emblem Clubs everywhere.

As loyal citizens of the United States of America, Emblem Club members are imbued with a true spirit of patriotism and devotion to community betterment which finds expression in participation in acts of charity and cooperation with the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks of the United States of America and with local authorities in all such activities as are thus designed.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS

The Supreme Emblem Club has grown very rapidly since its institution in 1926 throughout the United States of America. Charters have been issued for clubs in most of the States, in large and small communities with club memberships ranging from twenty to six hundred. Alaska and Hawaii are well represented in the Roster of Clubs as well as are States in all areas of the United States. The 65th Anniversary Year in 1991 was celebrated with 400 Emblem Clubs and 40,000 members. Its membership is growing steadily each year.

It has developed a coordination of effort by affiliated Clubs for the betterment of conditions of the less fortunate, assisting in important community projects, and assisting the members of the Benevolent and Protective Order of the Elks in their local community endeavors, the Major Projects of Elk State Associations, Elks National Home and Elks National Foundation.

EMBLEM

The Emblem of the Supreme Emblem Club, affiliated Emblem Clubs, and the State Association of Emblem Clubs is the FLAG of the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.
