MAYOR VELLUCCI
COUNCILLOR CLINTON

IN CITY COUNCIL
October 24, 1983

- WHEREAS: Annually, the Cambridge Boys and Girls Club honors persons whose lifestyle, personal deeds, and philosophy of living warrant their being considered models for emulation by the City's youth; and
- WHEREAS: The choice of these persons is the result of a comprehensive selection process which solicits nominations from area human service providers, community and business organizations, governmental bodies, academic, and other institutional representatives; and
- WHEREAS: The 1983 nomination process has resulted in the selection of Mrs. Mary McMorrow, a principal librarian in the City of Cambridge Main Library in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, St. Paul's Cambridge and Cambridge High and Latin School graduate, working member of human service, civic, and religious organizations as its first Woman of the Year Honoree; and
- WHEREAS: The following activities of Mary McMorrow are representative of those brought to the attention of the Cambridge Boys and Girls Club during this year's nomination process: President, Cambridge Emblem Club #108; Chairperson, St. Paul's 100th Anniversary Committee; Secretary, Sullivan Associates former First Lady of Cambridge; Founder, Neville Manor Visiting Program; Volunteer, St. Paul's Elderly Services Programs; and
- WHEREAS: The honors to be bestowed upon Mrs. McMorrow are proffered especially in recognition of her work on behalf of and effecting the youth of this municipality as a public librarian, especially in the area of Ethnic Studies and Programming; and
- WHEREAS: The Cambridge Boys and Girls Club will formally extend its "Woman of the Year" award to Mary McMorrow during ceremonies to be held Wednesday evening, October 26, 1983 at the Stephen James House; and
- WHEREAS: Hundreds of friends, associates, professional acquaintances, and neighbors have subscribed to this testimonial and will be in attendance at the awards dinner; and
- WHEREAS: The City Council wishes to record for all time its admiration for this esteemed City employee; now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That, paralleling and in furtherance of the honors, awards, and testimonials being accorded her and fellow recipient District Attorney Harshbarger through the efforts of the Cambridge Boys and Girls Club, this City Council designates October 26, 1983 as "L. Scott Harshbarger and Mary McMorrow Day" in the City of Cambridge, in recognition of their many contributions to the world of philanthropy, community service, and endeavors on behalf of the youth of Cambridge.
