3.
IN CITY COUNCIL
April 28, 1980

COUNCILLOR CRANE

ORDERED:

That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to instruct the Police Chief to take the appropriate steps to pay particular attention to the littering of streets, sidewalks and other city property by the disposal of beer bottles as the spring drinking season is now upon us and empty bottles are everywhere in the city; and if the Police Department is looking for a place to start enforcing said laws, they might start at the area in and around Alberta Terrace, particularly in the early morning hours, as many imbibers eat breakfast in the general area and deposit their bottles outside their cars before and after they have eaten breakfast.
