

Oct. 25th 1882.

To the Board of Aldermen of Cambridge

In behalf of my Father Mr. W^m P. Greenough - who is now in Europe. I wish to protest against the setting of edgestones on Harris St. It seemed to my Father an unnecessary expense - as our frontage on Harris St is about 240 ft. and the frontage of Mr. Bartlett the other remonstrant, is over 100 ft. and as this is nearly or quite as much as is held by all in favor of the Project - we ask the consideration of your Board for our protest -

Respectfully >

Walter L. Greenough
