

Cambridge, February 1st 1882

To the Honorable, the City Council, of the City of Cambridge,

The undersigned respectfully pray represent; that, from records and plans at the City Hall, the widening of Mount Auburn Street Westwardly, of Ash street in Ward One which was made in the year 1860 appears to have encroached upon land of Samuel Batchelder, since deceased. They therefore respectfully pray that your honorable body will take such action as will tend to ascertain the extent of such encroachment and will make provision for suitable compensation to the representatives of said decedent.

The Executor of the Will of Samuel Batchelder, dec^d
