IN CITY COUNCIL

November 5, 1990

COUNCILLOR CYR

- WHEREAS: The ability of citizens to respond to criminal activity within their neighborhoods is directly related to the volume of information they have about problems and trends, the willingness of the police to respond to such input, and the trust between our citizens and our police; and
- WHEREAS: Such citizen involvement is essential if we are to address the fear that exists in many of our neighborhoods, squares and streets; and
- WHEREAS: The Cambridge Police Department does a superior job of collecting and analyzing crime data; and
- WHEREAS: The Cambridge Police Department has been working hard to improve its communications through well attended meetings in several Cambridge neighborhoods, and improved reporting through the local press; now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That the Cambridge City Council go on record supporting the efforts of the Police Department to increase communications with neighborhoods and calls on them to work closely with the Chronicle, neighborhood groups, and crime watch groups to develop a program of crime watch tips and communications.
