Chap. 346. AN ACT AUTHORIZING THE CITY OF BROCKTON TO INCREASE THE PENSION PAYABLE TO RACHEL W. CARTLAND BY SAID CITY.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

For the purpose of promoting the public good, the city of Brockton is hereby authorized to recompute the pension of Rachel W. Cartland, a former city librarian of said city, so as to pay her an amount of pension equal to the amount of pension she would have received had she retired at an annual average rate of regular compensation as described in paragraph (a) of subdivision (2) of section five of chapter thirty-two of the General Laws of eleven thousand nine hundred dollars. Approved June 1, 1973.

Chap. 347. AN ACT INCREASING THE MAXIMUM PENSION PAYABLE TO CERTAIN WIDOWS.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

Section 95A of chapter 32 of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out the first paragraph, as most recently amended by section 4 of chapter 793 of the acts of 1972, and inserting in place thereof the following paragraph: —

For the purpose of promoting the public good and in consideration of the long and meritorious service of any official or employee who was retired or pensioned under the provisions of any non-contributory retirement law or who was qualified for retirement under the provisions of any such law but died before being retired, and who had no rights under any such law to elect that benefits thereunder be paid to a survivor, a county, a city or a town which accepts this section, in the manner hereinafter provided, shall grant an annuity to his surviving spouse, so long as such spouse survives and does not remarry, or, if there is no surviving spouse, to a legal guardian for the benefit of any surviving child who is unmarried and under age eighteen, in such amount as it may determine, but not to exceed ~~one half of the regular annual compensation received by such official or employee or three thousand dollars;~~ provided, that such official or employee had been permanently employed on a full time basis by such county, city or town for not less than fifteen years; and provided further, that such spouse or child is not receiving a retirement allowance or pension under the provisions of any general or special law other than a retirement allowance or pension based on the service of such spouse or child to the commonwealth or to any political subdivision thereof; and provided further, that any annuity granted hereunder to such spouse or for the benefit of any such child is less than fifteen hundred dollars, it may be increased to an amount not exceeding fifteen hundred dollars. In the case of a town, the board of selectmen shall, subject to subsequent disapproval or modification by the town meeting, grant such annuity and determine the amount. The annuity pro-
