WHEREAS: The holiday season brings joy and celebration to many Cambridge households; and

WHEREAS: Sadly, this atmosphere of joy and celebration is often obscured for the many Cambridge residents who lack the resources to provide a special holiday feast for themselves and the family members and friends for whom they care; and

WHEREAS: Many residents of our prosperous city associate the problem of hunger with foreign lands and distant cities, oblivious to the plight of the hundreds of Cambridge residents who rely every week on free food distribution at the Cambridge Food Pantry Network locations to fill their basic nutritional needs; now therefore be it

ORDERED: That the week of December 8, 1996, which marks the Cambridge Food Pantry Network's Annual Holiday Food Drive effort, be declared "Cambridge Share Our Feast" week with a sign on the lawn of City Hall announcing this effort; and be it further

ORDERED: That the City Council go on record urging all Cambridge residents to participate in this effort by making contributions in the form of food or money to the Cambridge Food Pantry Network; and be it further

ORDERED: That City officials be urged to support this effort by arranging for collection of food at a number of sites throughout the city including public buildings, schools and churches and that the Department of Public Works be requested to assist the Cambridge Food Pantry Network in transporting food from these locations to the Food Pantry on Inman Street during the week of December 15th.

In City Council November 25, 1996
