Dear Mr. Corcoran:

In accordance with our recent discussions, we are forwarding to you a check, payable to the City of Cambridge, in the amount of $2500.

This money is a portion of the University's $200,000 commitment to the City of Cambridge for recreation and related projects in the Riverside area.

It is our understanding that you will immediately issue checks as follows:

- $1,000 to off-set deficit incurred this year in the Day Care operation.
- $1,500 to purchase equipment to be used by the Day Care operation when it relocates to its new quarters in the King School.

If you have any further questions, please call me.

Thank you and best regards,

Donald C. Moulton

JOHN H. CORCORAN
City Manager

February 14, 1972

To the Honorable, the City Council:

I wish to advise your Honorable Body that I am in receipt of a check from Harvard University payable to the City of Cambridge in the amount of $2,500.00. This money is a portion of Harvard University's $200,000 commitment to the City of Cambridge for recreation and related projects in the Riverside area. We have previously received the sum of $24,000.00 from Harvard University for this area.

The $2,500.00 is to be allocated as follows:

$1,000 to offset deficit incurred in the Day Care operation.

$1,500 to purchase equipment to be used by the Day Care operation when it relocates to its new quarters in the King School.

It is respectfully requested that your Honorable Body accept the enclosed order relating to this matter.

Very truly yours,

John H. Corcoran
City Manager
