

City of Cambridge

28.

IN CITY COUNCIL

April 22, 1991

VICE MAYOR REEVES

WHEREAS: It is often the tendency to highlight the performance of City employees when their work fails to meet the standards of excellence we expect from them; and

WHEREAS: Although it is of the utmost importance that poor performance be identified and corrected whenever possible, it is also equally important that this Council, the City Manager, and City Department Heads recognize those in the City workforce whose work is of a particularly and consistently high quality; and

WHEREAS: It would also seem beneficial to the entire community of Cambridge City employees and residents to be made aware of such excellence within our midst; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the City Council request the City Manager to initiate an annual occasion for the purpose of recognizing those City employees whose high standards of performance in their work make a significant contribution to the life of this City; and be it further

RESOLVED: That on that occasion, no more than ten of these outstanding City employees receive specific recommendations, accompanied by a plaque or some other suitable commemoration.

In City Council April 22, 1991.

Adopted by the affirmative vote of eight members.

Attest:- Joseph E. Connarton, City Clerk.

A true copy;

ATTEST:- Joseph E. Connarton

Joseph E. Connarton
City Clerk

29

CITY COUNCIL ORDER
VICE MAYOR REEVES

APRIL 16, 1991

Recognition of Outstanding City Employees

- WHEREAS: It is often the tendency to highlight the performance of City employees when their work fails to meet the standards of excellence we expect from them, and
- WHEREAS: Although it is of the utmost importance that poor performance be identified and corrected whenever possible, it is also equally important that this Council, the City Manager, and City Department Heads recognize those in the City workforce whose work is of a particularly and consistently high quality, and
- WHEREAS: It would also seem beneficial to the entire community of Cambridge City employees and residents to be made aware of such excellence within our midst, now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That the Cambridge City Council request the City Manager to initiate an annual occasion for the purpose of recognizing those City employees whose high standards of performance in their work make a significant contribution to the life of this city, and be it further
- RESOLVED: That on that occasion, no more than ten of these outstanding City employees receive specific recommendations, accompanied by a plaque or some other suitable commemoration.

City of Cambridge

28.

IN CITY COUNCIL

April 22, 1991

VICE MAYOR REEVES

WHEREAS: It is often the tendency to highlight the performance of City employees when their work fails to meet the standards of excellence we expect from them; and

WHEREAS: Although it is of the utmost importance that poor performance be identified and corrected whenever possible, it is also equally important that this Council, the City Manager, and City Department Heads recognize those in the City workforce whose work is of a particularly and consistently high quality; and

WHEREAS: It would also seem beneficial to the entire community of Cambridge City employees and residents to be made aware of such excellence within our midst; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the City Council request the City Manager to initiate an annual occasion for the purpose of recognizing those City employees whose high standards of performance in their work make a significant contribution to the life of this City; and be it further

RESOLVED: That on that occasion, no more than ten of these outstanding City employees receive specific recommendations, accompanied by a plaque or some other suitable commemoration.

City Council, APR. 22 1991

Adopted by the affirmative vote of 8 members

Joseph E. Conerton
City Clerk

Order # 28

CONSENT

Vice Mayor Reeves re: performance of city employees;

In City Council,

April 22, 1991

Order adopted