Calendar Item # 7.
IN CITY COUNCIL

Councillor Danehy

August 6, 1973

ORDERED:

That until such time as there is proposed and approved a Comprehensive Plan for the future physical and economic development of the City of Cambridge, which in its implementation provides for a tax base which both encourages Cambridge residents and industry to remain in the city or to relocate into the city and provides the financial resources to preserve, protect and improve our neighborhoods and provide for the need of all our citizens, it is the sense and the policy of this City Council that there be a complete and absolute moratorium on the construction or planning of any additional units of low-income housing;

AND BE IT FURTHER ORDERED:

That the City Manager notify all departments, boards, agencies and groups in the City of Cambridge of the policy as set forth in this order, and that all said units of our city government in particular the Department of Planning and Development, the Cambridge Redevelopment Authority and the Model Cities Administration be directed to coordinate their respective activities to the goal of developing an implementable Comprehensive Plan which establishes the long range police of the City of Cambridge in the area of Housing and Community Development.
