WHEREAS: The beauty and uniqueness of the City of Cambridge are due to the rich diversity of cultures found here, and in celebrating those cultures, we celebrate the true essence of this City by the Charles; and

WHEREAS: The City of Cambridge is also proud of the emphasis it places on reaching out to friends from around the world, and of all the wonderful things this adds to our community; and

WHEREAS: Our community has long been aware of the many contributions made to our City and nation through the arts, literature, music, and culture of Italy and Italian-Americans; and

WHEREAS: For thirteen years, the City of Cambridge has enjoyed a sister-city relationship with the City of Gaeta, Italy, a relationship that has allowed the residents of both cities to learn about each other's cultures, exchange ideas about community building, and further the cause of peace in our planet; and

WHEREAS: We are most pleased to welcome THE HONORABLE SILVIO D'AMANTE, Mayor of the City of Gaeta, and his delegation, to our City on September 11th, to take part in a friendly cultural exchange, honoring the long standing friendship that has existed between our cities; and

WHEREAS: We are assured that the presence of THE HONORABLE SILVIO D'AMANTE and his delegation, will be a source of pride to both our Italian community and the larger Cambridge community; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this City Council, on behalf of the people of Cambridge and all peace loving people throughout the world, does hereby welcome THE HONORABLE SILVIO D'AMANTE and his delegation to the City of Cambridge, with great hopes of seeing the wonderful relationship that exists between the City of Gaeta, Italy, and the City of Cambridge, continue to blossom into the twenty first century; and be it further

RESOLVED: That this City Council does hereby designates the intersection of Warren Street and Porter Street as "GAETA SQUARE", and that said corner shall be heretofore known as such, so that any and all who pass and linger there, shall remember the great spirit of friendship that exists between our two cities.
